Intent of This Guide

visual identity guidelines has been established to guide a new approach to visual communication in printed and digital branded content .this visual identity guide is a refrence for everyone who is authorized to worK with the brand.

Our intent with this guide is not to restrict creativity and innovation; far from it. we believe in the creative spirit, and innovation is one of our core values.what we strive for is a coordinated ,consistent, and effective brand presence in everything we create.

If we maKe something,we want to maKe sure that people Know where it came form.
While some of our brand executions and graphics have been standardized- liKe business cards, letterhead, and envelopes - these are not intended as the focus of this guide. Instead, it is to empower you, the creative, with the elements you need to create. By utilizing these tools, resources, and adhering to the guidelines within, you'll maKe things that looK liKe the brand, every time.

Please refer backK to this guide often.If you have any questions concerning the content of this guide, please don't hesitate to reach out our Design Team at

Common Errors

Note: This is not a comprehensive list of errors. These are simply the most common or egregious errors.

Logo on Images

Care must be taKen to create well balanced and considered compositions: photography is a Key part of the identity and the use of color should always feel complimentary to the image. When placing the logo over photography please choose a pale area of the image to maintain sufficient stand out. In the following pages are shown some examples and common mistaKes.

Brand Colors

Our company colours are professional and modern, expressing who we are. we don't become associated with just one color. Burgundy is the main colour of growth identity so it has the strongest presence on our brand. Burgundy complement the Beige colour, creating balance and maKing the palette more distinctive and sophisticated. You should always try to use the positive (main) version of the logo. However, when the bacKground is the same colour as an element of the logo you can use the negative version. Burgundy Cool Gray, balance the other colours and gives space to the elements.

Alternative colours should not be introduced into the system, or they would reduce the impact of our colour palette.The growth logotype can be produced only from these colors. Please select the most appropriate color for your communication and over time try to use them equally so

Typography

Typography is a powerful tool in the development of a creative identity and is a Key element to create a cohesive looK across all communic tions. Using a typeface consistently maKes it recognisable; it pulls together communications and maKes them more distinctive. The style of type we use to bring our communication to life sets the tone of our brand: clean, modern, stylish, distinctive and legible. Selected fonts are a great combination between serif and sans-serif: Botera and Montserrat.
